Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 27, the government respectfully moves to hold this appeal in abeyance for 120 days. Plaintiff consents to this motion. In support of this motion, the government states the following:

1. In May 2024, the Federal Trade Commission issued a rule that defines most existing non-competes as unenforceable unfair methods of competition (subject to an exception for certain senior executives) and bans the future use of most non-competes. Non-Compete Clause Rule, 89 Fed. Reg. 38,342 (May 7, 2024). Plaintiff challenged that rule, and the district court entered a preliminary injunction prohibiting the Commission from enforcing the rule against plaintiff. See Dkt. No. 59, at 1-2. This appeal followed.

2. Following a change in administration, on January 20, 2025, President Trump designated Commissioner Andrew N. Ferguson as Chairman of the Commission. Chairman Ferguson has recently stated publicly that he believes the Commission should reconsider its defense of the challenged rule: “My view is that the Commission . . . basically needs to decide whether it’s a good idea [and] it’s in the public interest to continue defending this rule. . . . I’m going to be presenting at some point” to “my colleagues the decision about whether to continue defending this Rule.” The Harvard Salient, FTC Chairman Andrew Ferguson & Harvard Law Professor Adrian Vermuele: CORE Conference 2025, at 35:17-:40, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ty3s-zjLQFk>.

In light of the foregoing, the government respectfully moves to hold this appeal in abeyance for 120 days. An abeyance will conserve party and judicial resources and promote the efficient and orderly disposition of this appeal. The government respectfully proposes that, at the end of a 120-day abeyance period, the government can provide the Court with a status report regarding future steps in the case.

3. Counsel for plaintiff has informed the government that plaintiff consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

ERIC D. MCARTHUR
